

We are concerned that you may allow the several large companies, which already control most of the media, to acquire more stations and or periodicals than they already have. This would effectively eliminate competition and diversity. This endangers free speech as we know it. The airwaves are supposed to belong to the public.